

Do I have to use the battery to ride?

The battery is an optional form of assistance. Riders can ride their e-bike exactly like a regular bicycle if they want to.

How fast will my e-bike go?

There are laws in the US regulating the speed that e-bikes can go while using assist. There are three designations, related to various aspects of the mechanics of the bike. Class 1..... Class 2..... Class 3..... Unassisted, it's possible to exceed those speeds and that, of course, is perfectly legal.

How far will my bike go on a charge?

There are many things to factor in when determining distances. The size of the motor, the amount of assistance that the rider uses, hilly or flat terrain, amount of wind all have an effect. Our manufacturers provide a potential range, which varies according to a variety of factors. As a generalization.....

Does the battery re-charge as I pedal?

The idea exists to be able to recharge the battery as the bike is ridden. However, the technology is far from .....